

Dean Street:

Dog Fouling

General condition of the streets

Residents' parking

People would generally be interested in having a Residents' Representation Body, but are less interested in being involved

People are generally happy in the area and feel safe in the area most of the time

People generally tend to feel part of the Town Centre area and consider 'The Crescent' their neighbourhood.

Courtsnap Court:

Gritting of roads

State of Pavements

People would like a Residents' Representation Body and would be interested in taking part

People are happy in the area and feel safe most of the time

People would say they are from Westcott, and consider their neighbourhood an area including Birch St and Westcott Place

Newburn Crescent:

Drainage

Condition of back streets

People would be interested in a council-run community group, but do already have a Newburn Crescent group run by a resident

People are happy in their area and feel safe most of the time

Birch Street

Drain Clearing

Residents' Parking

People do not seem interested in a residents' representation body

People are very happy in their area and feel safe most of the time